Tab 1

many people disliked you because you are trylad, you cant seem to wrap your head around the fact that people can dislike other people for being themselves, just like i disliked you for being loud obnoxious for raging vs a Minecraft mob. you confessing to the victim is even more of a reason to, the reason I'm calling you a groomer, is because you were friends with the victim since they were 16, you made a connection with them, then confessed a year later after they had gotten into a relationship, with someone of your age, you confessing to them after saying how wrong their dynamic of their relationship is hypocritical when you are nearing the age of the person that they were in a relationship with, you thought they were into you because of the and i quote "love is a haunting endeavor" and having to bring up "laws implemented" doesn't help your case, you confessed to a minor, completely disregarding someone's whole fucking message CALLING YOU OUT because and i quote "they haven't gone through what i have" when you don't even know who your talking to other than surface level is so fucking weird, the way you handled conversating is BAFFELING to me. you keep TRYING to make it work with the victim even after being blocked multiple times and told out right they don't want to be associated with you for the mean time, saying that "we are the only people making it a big deal" when the people you are talking to are the community managers of the game your "helping" out with, its like that's their whole role, to protect the community for people like you bro , making it undermine the fact that what their doing is correct, by saying "their the only people who are making it a big deal". and saying all of that when being completely unprompted is just admitting.

TryLad 1:02 PM

you also happen to be the only people that make a big deal about this

You can not like me all you want

thats one thing

but it makes me physically ill when you try to compare this to actual child abuse

because I lived it you didn't stop speaking on things you know nothing about like there's been either heavy misinfo or straight up fabrications on the things that were told to people saying YOURSELF that its okay for an adult to confess to a minor just because you've been friends for years, is idk, let me think on the term, its grooming.

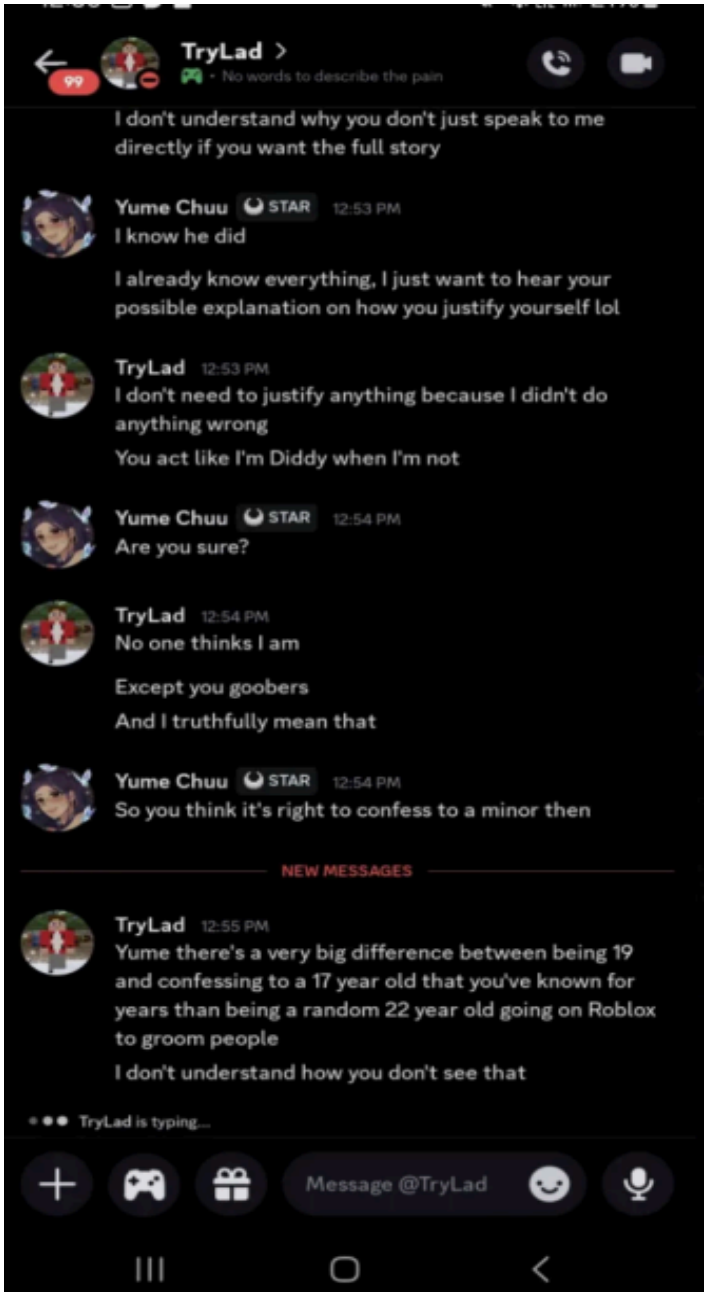
Like this message:

"I do think you are a predator. You are the adult, you need to be the responsible one. I'm sure you've seen how many times I've said this to Mator. I still think the same. It is your responsibility to maintain a platonic relationship with a friend that is a minor, not develop feelings and break the trust of your friendship.
You mentioned that you're friends for years, isn't that essentially grooming if you eventually harbor feelings and then confess knowing they are still a minor?

To you this may not be a big deal, to you it might a small age gap, but that doesn't change anything and it doesn't make it any better or even right in any way.
You are open to the whole thing, but what kind of information are you giving out? Only selected information? I don't know Trylad.
You can't blame me for feeling this way, I'm an adult and as a fellow adult, I feel responsible and affected because I care for the community. It's not about personal feelings, it's about the people as a whole.

TryLad 1:42 PM

Well thats just how you feel. Like I said it doesn't bother me that much, and truthfully from everyone I talked to I believe you're in the minority on this one. Doesn't make how you feel any less valid, everyone is allowed to form their own opinions on things. Yeah I don't agree with it, yeah a lot of people would say its stupid for me to even engage with you. But one thing I've always held myself to is integrity. I've always told the truth, ask anyone else, friends or not, and they'll tell you the same thing I told them. I don't omit details, I don't lie to anyone intentionally, as I believe honesty is one of the most important values a human can exhibit. What you believe is what you believe, while it hurts to hear it, I'm not here to change your mind on things, god knows I couldn't even if I tried. I'm simply here to give you the full context and allow you to come to your own conclusions on things. If you subscribe to it being fucked no matter how close they are in age, go for it, its how you live your life. If you need more information on things I'd be glad to sit down and share our full message history with you, every dm I sent in regards to everything. Conversations with all of my friends etc. Because truthfully I have nothing to hide, and from what me, and 90% of everyone I've spoke to about it agree with me on my stance. Just because you don't believe it doesn't change the fact that I am by all legal and moral consideration NOT a predator. If you believe I am, that's your viewpoint, and you can believe what you want to believe. I'll tell you the same thing I told augie, you can hate me all you want, but like it or not, we have to work with each other. And all I ask is that you remain civil about the whole thing.



just because a group of people disliked you before and now still do, doesn't change the fact that you acted upon yourself and made this situation happen. This is simply the consequences of your actions, those people just happen to be the same people who did not favor you much, and now even worse after what they know about what happened.

Honestly tryland, I was beyond disbelief when I heard about this. Not in a single million years would I have thought I'd come back to this information, I never saw you as this type of person. And I keep telling everyone this that I had developed a soft spot for you a long time ago, back when I was still active. With a heavy heart, I'm talking to you and facing you as you are now."

you are an adult and you missing the mentality of one is the only attack mentioned that you completely disregarded because it's "just how you feel" having to bring up another conversation that had nothing to do with you, from 5 months ago and state it as recent because it fits your agenda is an insane thing as well, it wasn't

The topic was not only, not about you, but it was a topic that was taken out of context. And a few days ago was made from trylad is seen from a screenshot by i mkksz, saying and i quote "She did go on call to agree with a 16 and 93 year old that really love each other not being wrong, so idk" which is a quote that was taken out of context.

(if his haircut isn't enough, his slot)

what this comes from is conversation where 8 people had to tell someone who didn't know, much like trylad, the difference between platonic, familial , and romantic love which was 5 months ago, again making it seem like it was recent it by saying "she did go on call to agree" when it was 5 months ago, nearly everyone involved had to show and explain the difference between relationships! including trylad chiming in, understanding the topic fully, we all TOLD the person who was in the wrong about what was going on, and it took near 54 minutes of talking for him to understand the differences, there are more messages about it and i don't wish to say the people involved other than just us 3 ! but trylad even while understanding the topic still skewered it

Here's a more detailed explanation:

Friendship as a Relationship:

Friendships are interpersonal bonds that involve connection, interaction, and a sense of mutual care and respect. They are a type of relationship, just like romantic relationships or family relationships.

What is this document about?

This document concerns a contributor named TryLad, who, at the age of 19, confessed romantic feelings to an individual who is still a minor at 17. While some may argue that the two-year age gap is relatively small, this reasoning alone does not justify or excuse the situation.

Why does this exist?

This document was made because, as a member of the community, I care about everyone's safety. The situation we're looking at doesn't just affect the people involved, but also how moderation works and how much authority figures allow or overlook certain actions. This write-up is meant to be a reference point for what happened and to make sure everyone is aware of it.

Why is it important to address?

This issue is important because it directly affects the community and how safe people feel within it. Allowing this person to walk away without any consequences sends the message that their actions weren't wrong, when in fact they were. Ignoring it also damages trust in moderators and authority figures, since it shows leniency toward harmful behavior. By addressing it now, we set clear boundaries, protect minors from possible manipulation, and prevent similar situations from happening in the future. Most of all, it shows that the community takes accountability seriously and values the safety of its members.

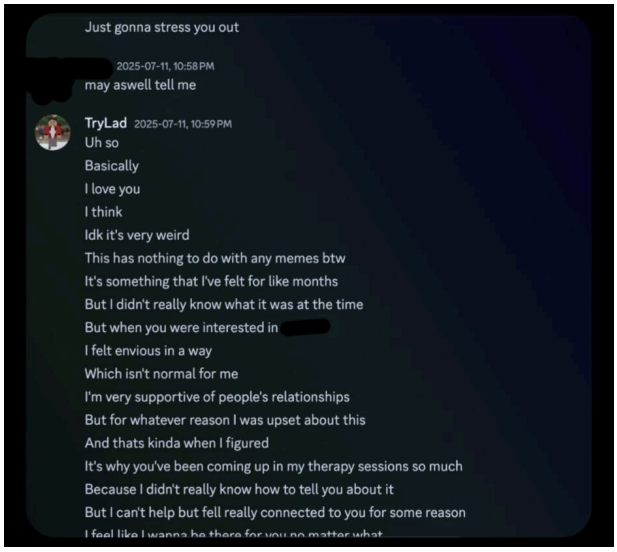
Confession to a minor.
July 11, 2025, (First Confession)



The minor did not respond to this confession, until Trylad reminded them that they sent a paragraph. If it wasn't bad enough that did you forget like the whole paragraph I sent you?

[redacted] 2025-07-13, 7:13 PM
well no
but why does that need a conversation if you told me

TryLad 2025-07-13, 7:13 PM
idk
I just wanna talk about it is all
I just feel like its not healthy for us to never bring it up

TryLad 2025-07-13, 9:25 PM
You wanna just chat
For the hell of it
I have to ask Because uh
I want to talk to someone
And I don't really feel comfortable talking about this with anyone else
